1. Information

The civil service recruitment process is considered as one of the most important processes in the administrative structure of each country. Since the creation of the new government in Afghanistan and 2001’s Boon Agreement regarding Afghanistan, this country has its own Independent Civil Service Commission for the recruitment of civil servants. According to the organizational structure of Afghanistan, there are 8 steps positions (BASTs). The position number 8th is considered as the lowest and number 1st is considered as the highest one. Each of these steps has its own criteria and conditions, but there is still ambiguity among people regarding these positions. Doing an academic research in this field has considered very important. This is why I have selected this topic to determine the Grad B’s (first & second BASTs) recruitment process in order to answer some of the important questions. For instance; the recruitment of these positions are on the base of selections by high authority officials or competitions? What are the criteria for Grad B’s candidates? How recruitment process starts and how it will finish? Which institutions are responsible to conduct the written exam and interview for these positions? The readers will be able to find answers for all of these questions in the context of this research. Moreover for the better management of recruitment process the government of Afghanistan enacted many laws include constitution.

1.1 Key Concepts about civil service servant’s

In this part I am going to have short discussion about the essential terminologies like; civil services, civil servants, BAST, and grad (B).

1) Civil Services: Civil services are those executive and administrative state’s actives which are done by civil servants (Afghanistan Civil Servants’ Law, 2008). The Civil Services Law of Afghanistan (2005, P. 2) gave the same definition with a little incremental changes as follow “The Civil Service performs all the executive and administrative activities of the Government based on the provisions of law”.

2) Civil Servant: When a person is appointed by the government in order to perform executive and administrative responsibilities is called civil servant (Hashimi & Lauth, 2016). This person should be recruited on the base of the provisions of law. A person will not consider as a civil servant when he doesn’t have the grad or rank (Afghanistan’s Civil Services Law, 2005). In another definition we can say that civil servant is a person who becomes a permanent servant in public administration on the base of the provisions of law in order to provide public services (Shahab Usufzai, 2017).

3) BAST (Position): It is a part of an organization structure which a civil servant can do his or her own related job. According to article 6, civil services have 8 BASTs with 5 steps (Afghanistan’s Civil Servants’ Law, 2008). The 8th one is the lowest and the 1st one is the heights (Hashimi & Lauth, 2016).

4) Grade B: This grade includes first & second BASTs civil servants (Appointment Board Procedure- Collocation, 2018). The first BAST is well-known as General Director, and second BAST is well-known as Director.

Grad B’s (first & second BASTs) recruitment process in Afghanistan

For more clarification of this process, I am going to divide it into two parts. In the first part, I will have discussion on the recruitment, its related rules and principles, and in the second part I will mention about the recruitment process in Afghanistan legal system.

1- Recruitment: Recruitment means assign an able person in an appropriate position. This function will be done through announcement in order to find and recruit qualify and expert person for specific duties (Mohammadi, 2015). Or recruitment means fill the vacancies in the office (Shahab Usufzai, 2017). Observing some of the principles during the recruitment process considers very necessary.
(1): General principles of recruitment:

- Principle of ability: According to article 50 of Afghanistan’s Constitution, without any discrimination, the state shall recruit Afghan citizens’ to do the public jobs on the base of ability. Moreover during this process observing of the provisions of law consider necessary (Afghanistan Constitution, 2004). Criteria of ability is difference from one position to another. Like those criteria which are necessary for Afghanistan’s president are different from minister’s (Mohammadi Tamki, 2011).

- Principle of rule of law: All of the recruitment process should be on the base of the law (Cardona, 0). So, rule of law will pave the way to recruit qualified, impartial and hard worker person for the public service (UNODC, 2012).

- Principle of equality: Creation of equal opportunity for every individual is considered very important principle during the recruitment process (Mohammadi, 2015). Article 50 of Afghanistan’s Constitution also emphasized on nondiscrimination during the recruitment process for the public affairs (Afghanistan Constitution, 2004). Afghanistan Labor Law mentioned on its article 9 that, discrimination during the recruitment process is not acceptable (Afghanistan Labor Law, 2006). Moreover Universal Declaration of Human Rights also considered equal access to public services as a fundamental rights of human being (Mohammadi Tamki, 2011). Any types of discrimination (gender, ethnic, religion and disable) are not allowed during the recruitment process (Afghanistan Civil Servants’ law, 2008). But there is one exception for the disable people which is mentioned is the article 12 of the Disabilities’ Recruitment Procedure for the Civil Service Administration, disable person has the right to get 3 extra marks as a bonus than able person during the recruitment written exam or interview (Disabilities’ Recruitment Procedure for the Civil Service Administration, 2019).

- Principle of impartiality: Civil servants should be impartial during their duties. They shouldn’t observe any favoritism or nepotism during the recruitment process. The only things which they should observe is the provision of law (Mohammadi Tamki, 2011). Finally, this principle will persuade the people to do their jobs on the base of willingness (Mohammadi, 2015).

- Principle of job security: When a person successfully passed the recruitment process and became the civil servant, he or she should have job security. It means that there should not be anxiety to him or her regarding termination job or shift from one place to another. So, civil servant should do his or her job as a permanent base (Mohammadi Tamki, 2011).

- Equality between salary and work: When administration pays the salary on the base of work, it will increase believes of the civil servants on administration. Unfortunately in some cases this principle violates in Afghanistan. It means that some civil servants get more salary under the title of (Super Scale), but some of them for the same positions get more less salary (Mohammadi Tamki, 2011).

(2): General principles of recruitment under Afghanistan’s Civil Servants Law:

According to article 7 of Afghanistan’s Civil Servants Law, a person can be hired as a civil servant whom should have the following conditions:

A copy of the announcement should be preserve in the Appointment Board and in related ministry’s human resource directorate (Appointment Board Procedure-Collocation, 2018).

Contents of the announcement: The announcement should be on Pashto & Dari languages, and it has the following points:
