

Shift in Consciousness and the New Beginning

Abstract: The world is having a new beginning. The new energetic changes are literally changing the way everything has been done. Everything about you evolving right now and you are going beyond the limitations of the mind. It comes back to yourself by your choices and your trust. Right now one of the biggest changes in consciousness is about the true understanding of Spirit and Self. It's time to give your body permission to heal itself: "Dear body, you know how to heal yourself. I trust you, dear body, and because you're part of me, now I let you do it". Choose the new way which is challenging do you believe in yourself. The new energy that is available for the new humanity is very clean, is very simple, and it is extremely abundant. The question is: Are you ready for that? Can you handle clean and free energy? What are you going to do with it? Are you going to use it for the betterment of yourself, and the betterment of the planet and the betterment of the other parts of the universe? Nothing is yours anymore, unless you choose it, nothing! It is about self-love. It is about understanding who you are, that you are totally a being of choice: You are the I AM PRESENCE on earth. Focus on your own being; can you allow yourself to allow your own natural changes and evolution to take place? Consciousness is always first, but right now technology is pushing consciousness.

Keywords: consciousness, technology, new beginning, new conscious energy, self-healing, Spirit

1. Introduction

Those who are called ascended masters have gone beyond, they have gone beyond the need for being on earth, for reincarnating, for any type of any other entity. It is called this ascension status, or going into a third circle where we are truly sovereign being. At this place we disassociate with mass consciousness - we have to in order to be sovereign. Then we can understand the dynamics of mass consciousness, but we are no longer part of it. We are absolutely sovereign. I encourage every human on earth right now to disconnect with mass consciousness. It doesn't mean that you go off on your own, it means that you're going to discover yourself on your own without of all the over layers, without hypnosis, and without lies of mass consciousness.

2. How are energetic changes affecting our consciousness?

The new energetic changes, what I call new conscious energy or new consciousness, are having tremendous effect - it is literally changing the way everything has been done. Let me start from the high level prospective. I could say that on an individual bases right now what is happening is the old human consciousness, your human identity, is making an evolution, let me say quantum leap, going beyond of what you know the functioning and your relation with your physical body. The DNA has been reworked, and beyond that what we call spiritual DNA, that is been reworked.

There is another thing that is been happening right now. The mind has been used for processing, judgment, storage of data and it is been considered perhaps the most important attribute of a human – you're going beyond that right now, beyond the limitations of the mind. It is not to say that mind is negative in any way, it's not a bad thing, which is just a limitation. So, you're going beyond that. Imagine now thinking and feeling and knowing not from your mind and not what you call from your heart, but from your entire essence. You're not processing information through the brain, you're not processing emotions trough what you call your heart, you're not processing feeling through just typical human senses of the eyes, of the ears, of the mouth and these other human senses. So it is an incredible transformation - one that the mind cannot comprehend. So, this requires very large degree of releasing, and allowing and trusting. Everything about you is evolving right now. What happens is that the individual humans tries to hang on, they are frightened by what they don't know. They know that they want crossing a chasm, but they want a guarantee, assurance that they will come to the other side. Here is a point of standing at the edge of that chasm, not knowing how deep it is, how wide it is, how dark or how light. Standing there in your physical bod with your physical mind saying: these parts of me tell me I cannot possible get over this chasm; I don't have strength in my legs to jump over, I don't have the intelligence and the tools to build the bridge over, so am I going to get over? You know that it is part of your chosen destiny to cross this chasm in the, what we call high consciousness human. How do you get there? Let every old pre-coerce notion, every old limitation, and every old understanding about yourself GO. And then an amazing thing happens. You just become, you find yourself on the other side of the chasm, but now the self that was back is on the other side. These are incredible challenges for any human right now, challenges that cannot be addressed in the mind, challenges that you're even not going to be able to find the ultimate answer in book, or even in videos. It comes back to yourself by your choices and your trust.

The magic is already within you, it is about you allowing yourself, your divine, every part of you, to come and play in your life right now.

3. What about the Gnost?

As along as about Gnost is, when you have connected with the divine answer, you just know it. You don't have to seek and guess it, you don't have to analyze it, it is a moment of aha. You just know it, now! One challenge: the answer that comes from Gnost is generally not the same answer that the mind would come from. There is a tendency for you to seek and guess or doubt yourself or that answer that you've received, so you interfered or you put it aside. The important here is to follow it. It's going to provide you with an answer that you could not have possibly come out with before, a solution that is so elegantly simple and easy that you're going to say "Why didn't I think of that before?!" So it is of the forth like on the stool: body, mind, spirit and Gnost, who are your creative solution.

4. What is importance of the Middle East role in this time of shift?

There were certain energies in Middle East that were pre-planted in earth, Gaia came in within, energies that would provide for balance, angelic essence, balance within a human form, energies that would allow for the evolution of the whole journey on earth, and of course one of the places where these energies were placed in a type of a crystalline structures in earth, was in Israel. These energies were dormant for millions, millions and millions of years, and they were activated about 2000 years ago. The energies in Middle East have to do with the eventual integration of the divine energy, God Aton energy, while individual humans were still walking on earth, not after they die, but while they still were walking on earth. Over a long period of time these energies in Middle East were even intensified by the whole human experience, and certainly intensified by the many of the things that have happened in Middle East for the times of Abraham, through Moses, through Yeshua, in the occurred times.

Middle East countries become a focal point for understanding of true God Aton right now. It's not that the answers are there, but it's a focal point. World is watching what happens there. They are watching the conflicts, they are watching the battle, they are also watching evolution and many beautiful things, beautiful things that are happening there. There are many stories that come out of the Middle East right now, and troubling stories, but some of them can be put in good stories, Palestinians and Jews working together, the stories of churches and many different religions working together for unity and harmony. This is actually much more prevalent than any of the problems that are there right now.

The world is watching this because the world is watching its own association with God Aton. One of the biggest things that are changing on earth right now is individual understanding of the self, the human with God Aton, and then eventually acceptance and the integration of that God Aton part within themselves, for too long human have separated themselves from God Aton, and the churches have played into this putting God up, somewhere else and as some strange twisted higher power. Right now one of the biggest changes in consciousness is about the true understanding of Spirit and Self.

So, Middle East countries are important to help you understand the changes of consciousness related to God Aton. Not that Israel or the Jews are the chosen people, or that it is a protected country. It is because the energy of the humanity right now has gone beyond the old conflicts. Consciousness is changing to the point where it will not allow the type of atrocities that have happened in the past, again because of the crystalline energies in Middle East and human consciousness. No one can destroy the power of individual divinity represented through the lands Middle East.

5. What healing modalities would make the transition easier for mankind?

The most effective modalities of healing depend on you. It truly depends on the person's consciousness. There are humans right now, all across the earth, who're going to benefit from what is called modern medicine, right now. There are things that you take as granted, in some of the, what is called developed countries, the basic of medicine. That would make an incredible difference on them and their spirit.

That's one level. The next level is other humans, who, right now not going to accept anything that they can't see or the pain that they can't feel. They are very stuck in, what is called cotemporary medicine or solutions. It is a group of people who basically are not taking ownership for their own health. They are expecting a doctor, or a hospital or a government to take care of them. And it is all played out, it is acted out appropriately. They get a pill, they get a surgery, they get some type of radiation treatment or laser treatment, and they feel better for a short time, perhaps. Because their consciousness is at the point they are not taking responsibility.

But I'm not talking to that group here. I'm talking to the group who is opening to a higher consciousness of themselves. To this group I am going to bring down the very basic rudimentary things. Your body and your mind already know how to heal themselves. Stop for a moment. You choose, close your eyes and take a deep breath. You have pre-planted everything you need, either in your physical body structure or in the energy field right around your body. You brought in all the tools with you.

Remember you are an angel, why not bring appropriate tools. Your body already knows how to heal itself. But, because you fall out of trust with yourself, with your body, because basically you're actually lack of the self-healing part of you. You got to experience how it is like to have a different types of diseases, and illnesses, and eggs and pains, but it's time to go beyond that. It's time to give your body permission to heal itself. Well, not going of all I'd say goofy in your brain about it, not debating whether or not you can really do it, but you just do it. Your body already knows how to clear itself of cancer, or Alzheimer, or of anything. I'm not talking about the avidity issues, or just one wants to stay young looking; I'm talking about the serious physical imbalance of the body. Body knows how to clear its liver, very, very well. Body knows how to go through the interesting process that happens every three of four years, when it literally goes and reworks the heart from energetic stand point and eventually physical. But, ever stopped to do this and relaying on some outside therapy. They want it comes from a pill, or surgery, or a crystal, or a mantra, or the latest, type of water that you take. And every time human does that basically sets that are self-healing capability one step further away. If you want to heal, it's that simple as making the choice. Sitting down, taking a few deep breaths, it is not for number of days and hours obviously, and saying: "Dear body, you know how to heal yourself. I trust you, dear body, and because you're part of me, now I let you do it".

Amazing thing happens here. If you develop trust with your body, your body will start to cleanse itself. It may make it sick for a short period of time, it may it be sick for you to stay in bed for a week, but your body is doing exactly what you asked it to do: its detoxifying, its clearing, its rebalancing, it is more miraculous than any of therapy that you've ever done in the past. Want you get into this new attunement with your body, it doesn't get much faster, much more efficiently, and if you want to use outside things like a bit relaxing water therapy or anything of this to make your time with biological rejuvenation, that's fine, but it's about accepting responsibility and knowing that you can heal yourself.

6. How can we best prepare for this shift in consciousness?

Shift in consciousness is happening at many, many different levels and it is going to happen naturally. Don't get caught up in the other people, or other countries, don't get caught up in a drama of things like energy, or oil running out, or food short gages; these are all just side effects of change. But they have also very beautiful and positive side, which most humans don't understand. They are going to help very quickly facilitate bringing in of the new energy, new agriculture method, new solutions to earth, very, very quickly. Don't get caught in the drama "the world is coming to an end". The world is having a new beginning. Focus on your own being. Allow your own natural change and the challenge I have to all every one of you individually: Can you allow yourself to allow your own natural changes and evolution to take place?

Not putting in the hands of some other being, not even putting in the hands of the mass consciousness. Do you love yourself enough to allow your natural process of ascension to take place? Get out of your mind and enjoy every day of your life and it will happen.

7. Is technology advancing beyond human consciousness?

That is the question about technology versus consciousness. Actually it is always consciousness first. Consciousness opens the doorway for technology. I use here the case of Tesla. Tesla was able to tap not only in his consciousness, but in the consciousness of all inventors all around the world, including Edison, and including many other basement and garage type of inventors who had wonderful concepts or ideas. It has created a consciousness pool. In the consciousness pool now, an individual inventor can go into and develop. It is interesting physics that technology can never exceed consciousness, at all. It raises many interesting questions and it raises what is called science fiction type of questions. But, technology will always, always follow consciousness. Never technology can evolve what consciousness cannot handle, whether it is an atomic bomb, whether it is internet, whether it is anything else. Now, it begs a question because consciousness is very broad invest, consciousness is both identified and unidentified, or aware and non-aware. So the question is at what point can you go beyond the consciousness that you're normally aware of, into those very far realms of consciousness, to develop technology? Human consciousness, mass consciousness, will only allow up to the certain point. Individual inventors and scientists, physicists, like Tesla, can actually go into consciousness that they are generally not aware of, but they could never adapted here, they could never make their concepts successful, because mass consciousness wouldn't allow it.

Is technology advancing beyond human consciousness?

I am concord with Tobias's remark that technology cannot exceed consciousness, but the very question is: where is the line of consciousness right now? But I'm going to add to it: technology right now is pushing consciousness. Technology is so closely behind consciousness, it is pushing, it is forcing, because we have never been able to get information instantly, and the ability of the internet to do that is pushing consciousness every day into an uncomfortable point. So, where have you ever had the ability to do things that you're doing right now, of the instant recording and the instant distribution? That pushes consciousness. Technology is right now like a wave that is right behind the primary wave that keeps pushing it.

Human consciousness is, in my opinion, lazy and lethargic, for the most part. But now we have technology kicking it in the ass.

8. Is the internet mimicking our human potential to communicate instantly?

Everything about technology is generally mimicking what can be done in the other realms. So, we have this thing about internet and instant access and it creates a literal grid, a physical grid and it is actually mimicking the energetic grids actually within ourselves, you see. Because, every atom, every molecule, every strand of DNA, every space between the space in human body is interconnected with each other. They communicate with each other constantly, instantly. It is only when we're screwed up by thinking about it or trying to mess with it that it doesn't work so well. So, the next step is interconnection of human consciousness. It is done on energetic level, it is somewhat electro-magnetic, it is what goes into other type of energies, light energies, it goes beyond the light energies, but they all are incredible, wonderful matrix that are out there. So, the next natural step for humans, for some humans is to go beyond for the need for the internet, for a computer, for a service, for a these data flow in digital form, and humans to be able to connect with each other, communicate with each other very accurately without any of these other tools. There are going to be scientists and researchers who are going to be monitoring this, both at the energy flow level, but also the ability to receive packets of information, which will be done faster and more efficiently than with our computers.

There are many researchers who are on earth right now, who have the origins back to the times of the Night Templars, the Illuminati and the Free Masons. They were very closely associated with these groups in past lifetimes. They chose to come to earth now and they've been coming in in the past 60 years but primarily in the past 20 or 30 years. Many of them are about 25, 35 years old right now. They have made a very specific choice to come to earth and become engineers, physicists, chemists and scientists, and a few mathematicians. Even though they would prefer to go into spiritual studies, they understand need right now to be on earth as researchers, quantum researchers, and they're not gonna get stuck in the box and in the old rules and the old ways as some other researchers have. They bring with them some very strong skills from the lifetime of the associated with these groups. They are going to help those who are, what is called consciousness workers, those who doubt to the new frontiers of consciousness. They're going to validate the work that has been done by the consciousness workers.

9. How might we take our products into higher dimensional realms?

How do we expand the consciousness of any work, both coming and going? Meaning: how do we bring in some of the non-physical energies into this, and how do we expand the consciousness through the use of media.

It's quite simple the choice. We are never alone and there is a large entourage with us. These beings are in our rooms, they are in our equipments, they are partly in us; they are very much helping to flow in, what is called multi-dimensional energy. What they are doing is creating safe and expansive energy for us, a safe space for us so that we can safely explore parts of ourselves, parts of our consciousness, things that we play with during the night in our dreams, but we don't dream of doing it when we're wide awake.

So, they are basically adding a potential to our work to expand that. In terms of expanding the consciousness of almost any product that we have most valuable tool right now, is the internet, for both our clips and the promotion of it. But, every night when we go to sleep or dream, whether we remember or not it's besides of it, but we dream. There are certain nights when we're doing future probing type of dreams, when we're looking into the new forms of solution. But, until up quite recently, we were not been able to bring it back in, or if we did that were bits of fragments. The doorway is open now for those who are bold and daring to bring back much larger parts of the dream consciousness, back to earth, instead of being behind the veil or kind of separation where we can't bring it. It is opening up now. So, when we're working on some product and we work with those who are assisting us, now allow ourselves to bring back more of what is called dream consciousness into the product and into this project itself. It will allow to be spread in a way that our former plan that we had for this didn't account for. By the way, there is a far grander plan than we thought to be.

10. As conscious creators, how do we move beyond the old paradigm of main stream funding?

That is the common problem of how do you work with the old consciousness in bringing in the new consciousness paradigm, how do you work with the old consciousness financial system, distribution system and all of the rest of these. I make a simple statement that you demand from them that what you want. You don't come in under them, but you come telling them what you want.

It is an interesting lesson to be learned for all of this. Right now, believe or not, old energy which will include humans, system, programs, it wants change. Old energy wants change. And when somebody, someone, some beings or some group come in and say: we are doing in the new way, it's relief. Old energy in human individuals, family members, business associated. Now, they will challenge you at first, it is challenging do you believe in yourself. But, they truly want you to have the answers, they want you to be successful in this. So, it is demanded. And one of the things that of utmost importance is: don't be fooled by old system. You tell them what you want, you hold very firmly to that, and they will give you what you want.

11. How do we work with this new feminine energy?

Let's take one at the time here. The new feminine energy I'm going to say is a bunch a crap. There is no feminine, there is no masculine, there is no separation, these are all illusions! Forget all talks about discovery of your feminine side and all of these things. I say these are just aspects of you. Yes, coming to the point of understanding of your own unity and integration, you do have to understand that you had a feminine and you had a masculine, but get beyond it very quickly. You are you, that is it! You are the I AM PRESENCE on earth. Get out of cuddling the feminine or strengthening the masculine and any of these things. The sooner you get away from it, the sooner you will eligible for true high level studies that I'm going to go into.

12. Will we ever use crystalline energy again, as it was used in Atlantis?

Absolutely not. We will not be using the same type of crystalline energy. Atlantis was 500,000 years ago, and a lot more. There was a different consciousness, and there was a natural energy that was embedded in earth, through the entity of Gaia. Before angels ever started finally descending on earth, crystals hold angelic energy, very universal energy. It was needed on earth at the time, otherwise the angelic beings would have never been able to survive in this harsh reality called earth.

Back in the time of Atlantis, which was not wonder time, which was evolution time, the crystals in earth, the stones in rocks, just hold energy, just like you could say that a reservoir of oil in the earth holds energy, and it was in the crystals. In Atlantis it was known how to tap into that energy, but it was used up for the most part. There was still in the deep in the levels of the inner earth, but how to go there. There was more sophisticated energy than what came from the crystals. Much more sophisticated than what comes now from the dinosaurs as your oil supplies.

The new energy that is available for the new humanity is very clean, is very simple, and it is extremely abundant. It comes in several forms but it is all free. The question I have back to you, to all humans:

Are you ready for that? Can you handle clean and free energy? What are you going to do with it? Are you going to use it for the betterment of yourself, and the betterment of the planet and the betterment of the other parts of the universe?

It may exist in other dimensions, but there are other parts of the universe that are waiting to the host the angelic beings in a somewhat other physical forms, after the development of the new energy sources on earth. But, is humanity ready to handle that kind of energy? Either they use it for the betterment or they use for the destruction? Humans are very close right now to these new energy sources. There are researchers and scientists who were part of the Illuminati and the Night Templars and Masons, who are one half breath from developing these. They do not quite know yet it in their heads but they are so close to it. They cannot go over this next hurdle right now, for the final development of the new energy sources. Can humanity answer the question for itself: can you handle it?

You may say the answer is obvious, we are certainly paying the high prices for gasoline. But, thing of the implication: who is gonna control it? Who is going to distribute it? Who will keep some wild fanatical religious zealote, from using it to blow up their neighbors, or the entire planet? You see, this question of consciousness and technology, they work together.

Until the consciousness of the humanity is at the point where it can accept free, easy and clean energy, this technology will stay in a kind of physic laboratory, but it will be never implemented on earth. So it is question for all of the humanity: can you handle it that it will be the energy source that is magnificent?

What would you do, I ask you, I ask you dear one, with the new energy that was abundant, and free and clean?

Interesting question!

13. How do we transcend the mind, and move into a more feeling based consciousness?

You got out of the feeling for the longest time. Feeling is divine, thinking is old. Humans tend to go the chaos, to the drama, and then they go back and convicted that is all that they can handle. I want to see humans who can actually feel, to use every part of themselves who can transcend the mind, transcend drama and truly be themselves. That is in principle.

There is such a lie right now on earth, everywhere. It is amazing how the lies are everywhere. It's in our news, in our government, in the whole thing about oil, lies in our schools, everywhere. It is amazing to watch it everywhere. And people buy into them. They believe it. Humans have forgotten how to feel on their own, and to be discerning, and to take their ownership, so they buy into this pool of lies. This proliferation of lies has caused energy to get stuck once again. And part of our job is working with humans like you who thoroughly understand it, but you are hectoring around it. It is time to transcend this overlay of consciousness, but it is thick heavy mug of consciousness on earth right now.

Earth is the evolution point for the rest of cosmos, for angelic families, way back home, for the development of the many new earths that will come to be. One new earth right now, we call it laboratory or the library, of the human consciousness potential that could be, but right behind that are thousands and thousands of the new earths, that are ready for birthing in different dimensions, different parts of the physical universe. I get so tired and so impatient by the sugar coated spiritual egotism. I have to tell you and I'm very direct here. There was an old agreement that was made approximately 200 years ago, in this land, in this area, that was agreement about protecting its natural beauty and its natural quality, and there were incredible energies here. The agreement was not appealed by those who made it with each other. And particularly in very, very recent years this agreement was to keep in the places of peace, and serenity, and meditation and honoring. The earth has been distorted.

14. How do we get beyond the limitations of mass consciousness?

That is one of the other problems on earth right now. You've been bombarded with energies from everywhere and you can take it as your own. Take it ONLY what you want and keep it simple. Don't buy into the lack of abundance, it's not yours, yet you choose to take them on for some strange reason. The strange thoughts are going through all of your minds. You know what they are, you're ashamed of them, you wonder where that thought is coming from. Maybe from the next door of your neighbor, maybe from the next city, but you own it, you take it as your own, you blame yourself, you think that you're bad person. It is NOT your own thought. It might be coming from an aspect of your past lifetime, it might be coming from your current lifetime when you're in a difficult situation. It still is not yours. You feel guilty about it, you feel you have to carry around. Nothing is yours anymore, unless you choose it, nothing! You're gonna to say that's selfish, perhaps. That is not at all. It is about self-love. It is about understanding who you are, that you are totally a being of choice. And so it is.

15. Conclusions

The new energetic changes, what I call new conscious energy or new consciousness, are having tremendous effect - it is literally changing the way everything has been done. Everything about you evolving right now and you are going beyond the limitations of the mind. It comes back to yourself by your choices and your trust. The magic is already within you, it is about you allowing yourself, your divine, every part of you, to come and play in your life right now.

You don't have to seek and guess it, you don't have to analyze it, it is a moment of aha. It is of the forth like on the stool: body, mind, spirit and Gnost, who are your creative solution.

One of the biggest things that are changing on earth right now is individual understanding of the self, the human with God Aton, and then eventually acceptance and the integration of that God Aton part within themselves, for too long human have separated themselves from God Aton, and the churches have played into this putting God up, somewhere else and as some strange twisted higher power. Right now one of the biggest changes in consciousness is about the true understanding of Spirit and Self.

Your body and your mind already know how to heal themselves. You choose, close your eyes and take a deep breath. You have pre-planted everything you need, either in your physical body structure or in the energy field right around your body. You brought in all the tools with you.

It's time to give your body permission to heal itself.

If you want to heal, it's that simple as making the choice. Sitting down, taking a few deep breaths, it is not for number of days and hours obviously, and saying: "Dear body, you know how to heal yourself. I trust you, dear body, and because you're part of me, now I let you do it".

The world is having a new beginning.

Focus on your own being. Allow your own natural change and the challenge I have to all every one of you individually: Can you allow yourself to allow your own natural changes and evolution to take place?

Consciousness is always first. Consciousness opens the doorway for technology. But right now technology is pushing consciousness.

The doorway is open now for those who are bold and daring to bring back much larger parts of the dream consciousness, back to earth, instead of being behind the veil or kind of separation where we can't bring it.

Choose the new way which is challenging do you believe in yourself. Don't be fooled by the old system: you tell them what you want, you hold very firmly to that, and they will give you what you want.

You are you, that is it! You are the I AM PRESENCE on earth.

The new energy that is available for the new humanity is very clean, is very simple, and it is extremely abundant. It comes in several forms but it is all free. The question I have back to you, to all humans: Are you ready for that? Can you handle clean and free energy? What are you going to do with it? Are you going to use it for the betterment of yourself, and the betterment of the planet and the betterment of the other parts of the universe?

Feeling is divine, thinking is old.

There is such a lie right now on earth, everywhere: it's in our news, in our government, in the whole thing about oil, lies in our schools, everywhere. Humans have forgotten how to feel on their own, and to be discerning, and to take their ownership, so they buy into this pool of lies. This proliferation of lies has caused energy to get stuck once again.

Nothing is yours anymore, unless you choose it, nothing! That is not selfish at all. It is about self-love. It is about understanding who you are, that you are totally a being of choice.

Author Profile

I was born on August 6, 1950 in Grab, Montenegro (former Yugoslavia).

1982 – Acquired my PhD in the field of atomic and plasma physics, at the same Faculty, under the title: "Regularities and Systematic trends of Stark Width and Shift Parameters of Spectral Lines in Plasmas".

1985 -1987 Spent two years as fellow of the Alexander von Humboldt Foundation from Bonn (Germany) at the University Düsseldorf developing plasma UV-spectroscopy at the tokamak UNITOR and performing measurements of the plasma instabilities in the scrape-off layer at the tokamak TEXTOR in Jullich (Germany).

1987 – 1991 Worked as the guest scientist at the Max-Planck-Institute for Plasma Physics in Garching by Munich (Germany) performing measurements of the magnetic field configuration at the stellarator W7AS as well as the measurements of the limiter heat load.

1991 – 2000 Was working in the Institute of Physics in Zemun (Serbia) on investigations of the plasma force-free configurations and in 1995 I acquired the Research Professor degree.

2000 – At the end of 2000 I chose to leave the Institute of Physics and went on my own way to discover and learn the God's principles and laws of creation.

After 18 years of the progression toward that sacred goal, I finally succeeded and now I know many of the God's creational principles and laws (unknown until now) and can apply them for the simple and efficient creations which make the basis for a new life quality on this planet.

I am a pioneer, creating with a New Conscious Energy and building a new civilization without electricity.

I've developed the Tesla Radiation Balancer-the genuine product in form of a self-adhesive sticker certified by the Hado Life Institute of Dr. Masaru Emoto which 100% balances radiation from any device, if attached to it, protecting the human body and environment from its harmful effects and eliminating with time the damages already caused by the radiation. It can be successfully applied to: cell phones, computers, laptops, microwave ovens, cordless phones, tablets, wireless monitors, Wi-Fi routers, TV-sets, Radios, and any other source of radiation.

Thanks to the consistent pursuit of my Leitmotif "The Authority of Truth rather than the Truth of Authority" I have experimentally proved the true atom, cell and particle "ATON" concept. According to the "ATON" concept, atoms, cells and particles are made of light which are spinning around the centering Mind (Spirit) points (the black holes). Nature expresses energy as electric potential in only one way, which is the same way both for the atomic and for the stellar scale: by projecting mentally the rings of visible light which are spinning around the centering Spirit points. This amazing beauty of creational simplicity is the basic fundamental truth of a new science that is based on the knowledge of the cause.

I wrote two books: "GOD IN THE ATOM" and "DODECA 101 LOVE ENERGY" which are available on my website.

I use to practice sport very gladly and am a unique tennis coach.
